Wants High Cost Of Dying Reduced; Funerals Too High

JACKSON Miss Jan 12 (Spl.) While the high cost of living is a subect of more or less heated discussion, fr. Whitworth, of PRe, believes that receive consideration.

Accordingly, Mr. Whitworth has placed on the house calendar a bill seeking to reduce funeral expenses by providing that the profits of undertakers shall be limited to 50 per cent, and members of this grave and dignified profession are required to file monthly reports with county tax collectors showing number of funerals held, prices charged, etc.

The member from Pike frankly charges that some of the undertakers in Mississippi are heartless profiteers, and he intends to put a crimp in their business. Mississippi Valley Highway Association to Meet in Jackson-Prominent Speakers

JACKSON POSTOFFICE RECEIPTS A RECORD

JACKSON, Tenn. Jan. 13. (Spl.)—
The postal receipts from the sale of stamps at the local postoffice during the three months ending Dec. 31, aggregated $17.025, which represents the postage for the largest quantity of main that has ever passed through the post-office in three months according to a statement given out yesterday by Postmaster Oliver Benton. The postal receipts for the same period in 1918 were almost as large but a higher rate of postage was in effect at that time, the flat rate for sealed letters being three cents and for postal cards two cents. It is estimated by the postoffice authorities that the amount of mail passing through the local office has increased approximately 30 per cent over the amount last year.

DODGES HIS BULLETS

Where the David of biblical times employed a sling shot against the great Goliath of Gath, David Moore, 26, negro, 506 St. Paul avenue, employed slugs of lead, spit out from an automatic pistol, in the general direction of his lady love, Maggie, 658 Ayers street, Monday afternoon when, she looked to him like the vision David saw on Mr. Uriah's roof.

But the modern David's aim was poor. A door suffered more than did Maggie.

Detectives Bishop and Joyce, with Emergency Policemen York and Oliver, summoned on the run, disarmed David and Jailed him on charges of assault to murder and carrying a pistol.

Dave, they learned, shot at Maggle, when she refused to marry him.

GULFPORT ACADEMY

GULFPORT, Miss., Jan. 13.—Two large barracks of the Gulf Coast Mill-tary academy were destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The cause is unknown.

After discovery of the fire it had gained such headway that calls for assistance were sent to Gulfport and Biloxi. Engines from both places arrived shortly despite the distance of several miles, the departments rendered much assistance.

Most of the students were away at the time, but their belongings were practically all saved.

Estimate of the loss sustained is unavailable, but it was fully covered by insurance. Officials of the academy said last night that the fire will not interfere with the present school term.
